10. Key Terms & General Provisions

Nature of Empanelment and No Work Guarantee

This RFE is being issued for the purpose of non-exclusive empanelment of suitable professional firms. Empanelment shall not create any exclusive right, preferred status, minimum business assurance, or guaranteed work allocation in favour of any empanelled firm. RTIH may empanel one or more firms and may assign work, if any, from time to time based on requirement, capacity, responsiveness, timelines, specialization, geography, past performance, and commercial reasonableness.

Unless otherwise specified by RTIH, empanelment under this RFE shall remain valid for a period of two (2) years from the date of empanelment, unless extended, suspended, or terminated earlier by RTIH. RTIH may review the empanelled panel periodically and may refresh, revise, expand, or rationalise the panel as it considers appropriate.

Work Allocation and Confirmation of Capacity

RTIH may allocate assignments in batches or individually. Before issuing any specific assignment or work order, RTIH may seek confirmation of availability, throughput capacity, team deployment, and acceptance of timelines from the empanelled firm. of this RFE may be rejected without further consideration. Applications received after a review cut-off may be considered in the next cycle.

Technical and Commercial Review
